

JAPANESE ARCHITECTURE LECTURE

Heritage of modern Japanese architecture: Tange's DNA
Free/ no booking required

CANBERRA: Tuesday 24 February 5.30 – 6.30pm
James O Fairfax Theatre, National Gallery of Australia

SYDNEY: Wednesday 25 February 5:30 – 6:30pm
Centenary Auditorium, Art Gallery of New South Wales

MELBOURNE: Friday 27 February 5:45 – 6:45pm (Start from 6 pm)
Faculty of Design, Building G, Caulfield Campus, Monash University

Paul Noritaka Tange, architect and president of Tange Associates, will deliver a lecture about the legacy of his father, Kenzo Tange, one of Japan's most honoured architects. Kenzo Tange was a teacher, writer, architect and urban planner, revered not only for his own work but also for his influence on many architects today. The lecture will discuss the works of Kenzo Tange and his influence on modern Japanese architecture.

Presented in association with the Embassy of Japan

Image: Mode Gakuen Cocoon Tower, Tokyo,
Japan (2008)