(August 2015)

On August 4, Ambassador Kusaka attended a reception to mark the 30th anniversary of the establishment of the Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (BTMU) in Australia at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Sydney. Attended by over 200 guests, Mr Nobuyuki Hirano, President and CEO began the reception with a speech which was then followed by a few words by Ambassador Kusaka on behalf of the attending guests. The Ambassador and Mr Hirano were joined by Consul-General of Japan in Sydney, Mr Masato Takaoka for the kagami-wari (sake barrel breaking) ceremony.

Other than supporting many Japanese and non-Japanese across many business ventures in Australia, the Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi-UFJ has a strong presence in project finance and is highly respected in this area.
